ABOUT HOUSE TO LAOS

Jenia and Sergey share travel adventures on one of their blogs: House to Laos + everywhere in between. They believe that travel is essential and accessible – and inspire their readers to feel the same. From long term, round the world travel to short trips, they motivate readers to find their 'travel sweet spot' and just go! They write short stories about off the beaten path adventures, share useful tips and recommendations, and provide insight into lifestyle that prioritizes travel.
